DMV California

Resident Military Personnel Operating a Vehicle in California

Military personnel who are also residents of California but deployed to a location outside the state may qualify for a renewal penalty waiver.

To qualify for the renewal penalty waiver, the registered owner must be ordered to temporary military duty during

- Armed Forces reserve, or
- Armed Forces
- National Guard.
- Deployment Does Not Include:
 - Temporary duty for the sole purpose of training or processing.
 - A permanent change of station.

DMV California

Non-Resident Military Personnel

Any nonresident owner of a vehicle registered in a foreign state and a member of the U.S. armed forces or spouse of a member of the U.S. armed forces on active duty within this state. Any person on continuous active duty in the Air Force, Army, Navy, Marines or Coast Guard is considered military personnel. This does not include civilian personnel employed by a branch of the armed forces.

Discharged Military Personnel

Any person entering California following discharge from the armed forces of the United States is exempted from registration of passenger vehicles and trailer coaches provided the vehicles have out-of-state plates and registration.

Registration becomes due when you accept gainful employment in California or become a California resident (as defined in Section 516 of the Vehicle Code) and must be paid within 20 days following that date to avoid penalties.
